Dear Dick:

I am pleased that you will be able to join us in June to conduct a seminar in our "Perspectives on the Soviet Union" series. The week of 16 - 20 June is perfect.

As we discussed, the seminar will be held at a residential facility so you are free to choose the time of the sessions. Since we will have a captive audience, I would encourage you to consider a couple of additional sessions in the evening, consisting of a formal presentation by you or a guest, an informal discussion period, or an appropriate film.

STAT [redacted] will contact you in mid-March to discuss preliminary plans, administrative support, bibliography, etc. Should you wish to contact her, she can be reached on [redacted].

Dear [REDACTED]

STAT

In response to your letter of January 16, let me suggest as the dates of my seminar June 16 - 20. I would like to conduct the seminar every day either from 10 - 12am., or, from 2 - 4pm., whichever is more convenient (for me, probably the latter). Your other conditions are satisfactory and I look forward to confirming the arrangements.

Yours sincerely,

Drch
